

A woman is shown in a yoga pose, sitting on a beach at sunset. She is in a seated position with her hands raised and joined at the tips, forming a triangle. The background is a soft, warm sunset over the ocean. The entire scene is framed by a large purple triangle that tapers to a point at the top. The triangle is divided into three horizontal sections: a dark purple top section, a light purple middle section, and a dark purple bottom section. The woman's pose is centered in the middle section.
